

LFC Fee schedule and NEW UNIFORM information for 2010-2011

Listed below is the yearly fee schedule for Lexington FC for 2010-2011. Fees remain the same as last year. A two check payment option will be available once again for those not paying in full with a credit card. Included in the fees (for only this year) is the cost of a new uniform ($50 for Academy, $95 for all others), which is required of all players except those who will be U-18s in 2010-2011. When you register for your team after tryouts, you will be required to select your uniform size choices in a drop down menu in League One. The new uniform sizes are almost identical to the old ones (both are adidas) so you can get a fairly good idea of sizes by looking at your current kit. There will also be opportunities to stop by the LFC office inside Kentucky Indoor before tryouts and at tryouts to try on uniform samples to obtain size information.

The Academy uniform ($50) consists of three t-shirts, one pair of club shorts and one pair of socks.

The standard LFC uniform ($95) consists of two jerseys, two pairs of shorts, and two pairs of socks.
